Declares Japan Qualified To Rejoin Free Nations

TOKYO, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur declared today that Japan now is unconditionally qualified to rejoin the family of free nations.

The supreme commander of the occupation made the statement on the fifth anniversary of V-J day. He said he based his opinion on Japan's record of social, political and economic progress in the five years since her surrender.

MacArthur said: "Militarism in Japan, largely through the self-directed efforts of the Japanese people, has been banished and no longer exists even as a debatable concept."

He pointed out, however, that elsewhere "imperialistic militarism, marching under different banners but unified direction, is leaving in its wake the stark tragedy of human and spiritual wreckage."

MacArthur added: "The basic objectives of the occupation have been achieved. Politically, economically and socially Japan at peace will not now fail the universal trust."

Heavy downpour of rain about 7:30 a. m. today marooned many persons on business district sidewalks. Water rushed down hillside streets and was as high as curbs. Bus operators were considerate and steered their buses close to the curb so commuters would not get their feet wet entering or leaving buses.

The August stork race at the New Castle hospital showed the boys edging ahead of the girls by a slight margin. Of the 44 new infants brought into the world at that hospital 24 were males and 20 were female. No twins were reported in the lot.

One set of twins was among the 131 infants born at the Jameson Memorial hospital during August. It is reported, it was the boys again as 73 young men arrived against 68 young ladies.

County Highway Superintendent Alfred A. Martin, stated today that he had not entirely ruled out the possibility of his department equipment being supplied with radio this year yet. ## Security Council Will Crack Down On Malik

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Sept. 1.—The U. N. security council under Britain's presidency will crack down today on Soviet Delegate Jacob Malik after 31 days of unrelenting Russian obstruction and propaganda on the Korean conflict.

Sir Gladwyn Jebb told International News Service he will strive right from the start of today's 3 p. m. meeting to "bring order out of shambles" and restore the 11-nation body to normal procedure and behavior.

Malik indicated he will be in his seat on the receiving end but determined to pursue his roughhousing.

First Move

Jebb's first move will be to wipe aside all obstructionist tactics on Korea and ride over Malik's objections to inviting South Korean Ambassador John Chang to the

Senate Will Vote Today On New Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The Senate votes today on the 4.5 billion dollar emergency tax bill and its controversial excess profits tax rider.

Senate Majority Leader Lucas (D) Ill., announced that he will keep the Senate in session until it disposes not only of the tax bill but also of the economic controls measure "even if it takes until one or two o'clock in the morning."

A proposal by Sen. George (D) Ga., to scrap the O'Mahoney-Connally excess profits tax rider and substitute for it a directive to tax-writing committees to prepare a retroactive excess profits bill next year brought the amendments to the voting stage.

Final Senate passage will send the measure—which carries its original title as "a bill to reduce excise taxes, and for other purposes"—to conference.

The House passed the bill early this year as an excise-cutting measure. The Korean war brought a change of direction, and the bill was used to provide 4.5 billions in new taxes toward building up the nation's military strength.

Five Airmen Are Released By Red China

HONG KONG, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Five airmen, including two Americans, arrived in Lashio, Burma, today en route to Hong Kong following eight months' internment by the Chinese communists.

The American fliers are Capt. D. Garden of Dallas, Tex., and Capt. S. MacGowan of Roselle, N. J.

The men were taken into custody when their plane landed last Dec. 21 at Kunming as the local commander was in the process of switching his allegiance from Chiang Kai-shek to the Peiping regime. He refused to let them take off again.

No terms of their release were divulged.

Defense Secretary Johnson Gives Labor Day Message

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Defense Secretary Johnson, in his Labor Day message, termed the armed forces and U. S. labor today as willing to fight and die for peace and liberty.

Johnson said:

"Labor Day, 1950, finds our way of life again challenged by the enemies of human liberty and peace in the world. In Korea, American men are deep in battle with evil forces. At home, the American worker has rolled up his sleeves, offering the patriotic service that has helped to keep America free through the years.

"On Labor Day, symbol of the American worker's freedom, let us re-dedicate ourselves to the cause of peace and liberty. As in the past, labor and the armed forces are one in willingness to work, to fight and to die, if need be, for that cause."

Communists In U. S.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)

The House un-American Activities Committee has today a "Who's Who in Communism" to compare with testimony from both those accused of Communist activity and their accusers.

Committee possession of a list of 380 Communists in the United States was revealed as three former government officials, namely as party members by an admitted former Communist, also a one-time government worker, were called to testify.

Fellow Members

The three are John Abt, Nathan Witt and Charles Kramer. They were described as fellow members of a Communist cell by Lee Pressman, former government and CIO attorney.

The "Who's Who in Communism" was given the committee last Tuesday by still another former Communist, Louis Budenz, who once edited the Daily Worker, Rep. Nixon (R) Calif., a committee member, said that Budenz submitted the list to the committee when he appeared to testify but was not called.

Nixon said that the list of Communists was a volume more than

Congress To Act On Check To Inflation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Congress acts today to give President Truman almost total authority to stop wartime inflation.

The House moves first on the compromise economic controls bill, followed by the Senate, which will go into night session, if necessary, to wind up.

The compromise bill represents major concessions from the senate conferees, particularly on price wage controls, and therefore faces sharp criticism from the senate floor. But an overturn of the con-

Biggest threat on the northern part of the Nakdong front was southwest of Hyonpung (3). On the east coast, drive on Pohang (4) was halted as South Koreans re-took Kigye, nine miles northwest.

Formosa Policy Unchanged Administration Insists

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)

Administration sources insisted today that White House policy toward Formosa is unchanged despite President Truman's assertion the seventh fleet will be withdrawn from defense of that island once the Korean war is won.

White House and state department spokesmen brushed aside congressional cries of "confusion," "another about-face" and "a gleam of light" on Mr. Truman's recent rebuke of Gen. MacArthur, who wants Formosa held at all costs.

Patently, these authorities again quoted from the record to prove the president's Formosan policy is completely consistent.

They said Mr. Truman's news conference statement that the seventh fleet is only a temporary flank defense while the Korean war is being prosecuted in direct line with the United Nations commitments.

Marine-Navy Fliers Battle Reds Advance

(BULLETIN)

FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Sept. 1.—(INS)—U. S. marine and navy air force fighter planes strafed enemy troops 50 yards in front of the American 25th division lines on the southern front today.

Carrier airmen hit everything that moved in an effort to aid the hard-fighting infantrymen against the all-out Red attack aimed at the ports of Masan and Pusan.

Other fighter planes slashed at 17 Red crossings of the Nakdong river on the central front where the enemy was pushing hard toward the Taegu-Pusan highway.

Pilots reported they could see American infantrymen standing and cheering and waving to them as they buzzed low over the front in their strafing, rocketing and bombing runs on Red lines.

Heaviest Fighting
Airmen said the heaviest fighting appeared to be in the Haman sector, seven miles northwest of

Drive Being Made Along Wide Front By Huge Forces

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, Sept. 2.—(Saturday)—Outnumbered U. S. troops retreated up Jo eight miles Friday night before a mammoth Red offensive that cracked the Nakdong river line at 17 places and hammered directly at the Masan gateway to Pusan.

Armor-tipped units of some 50,000 Communist troops surged eastward along the northern and southern wings of a 55-mile offensive front, but lost the road center of Haman in the south to a counter-attacking American regiment.

Battle Way Back Into Haman

The U. S. regiment, made up of fresh reserve troops, swept back into Haman at 5 p. m. and drove two miles beyond to strategic high ridges. Haman is seven miles northwest of Masan.

A front dispatch said enemy pressure which eased during the day became "very heavy" at dusk with enemy artillery and mortars blasting American positions.

International News Service War Correspondent Frank Conniff quoted a high American field officer as saying "the enemy is shooting the works in this offensive."

This officer said the Red invaders made a pressure penetration of "a good many thousand yards" between the U. S. 25th and Second Divisions at the confluence of the Nam and Nakdong rivers.

One American battalion was reported to have "broken" before this enemy drive and the U. S. field officer said "many" American companies were in serious trouble.

Fighter Planes Aid

U. S. fighter planes came to the aid of one isolated company in the Haman zone and burned out Red troops encircling it with fire bombs. This opened an avenue of escape, but the company decided to remain in hill positions.

The counter-attack by fresh American troops which regained Haman was designed to erase the Communist wedge between the 25th and second divisions.

But other North Korean forces swung around Haman to the southeast and opened up a violent mortar and small arms attack Friday night against a 25th Division Regiment just west of Masan.

Western Gateway to Pusan

Masan harbor is the principal western gateway to the chief Allied entry port of Pusan, lying 25 air miles to the east of Korea's southeast tip. Capture of Masan by the Reds would cut off the 25th Division regiment which retook Haman after losing it Friday morning.

Five enemy divisions, supported by units of North Korea's best armored division, were pressing what Gen. Douglas MacArthur called an "all out effort" to reach Pusan, cut the Pusan-Taegu life line and overwhelm the Allied Korean beachhead.

The enemy was prosecuting this "do or die" drive over the bodies of many hundreds—perhaps several thousands—of his own dead, cut down by American counter-fire and aerial pummeling in the first day of the giant battle.

Fifteen to 17 Russian-made tanks were knocked out and others damaged while other Red equipment was destroyed in the day's turbulent fighting along Korea's southern seaboard and the middle Nakdong valley.

ON THE MASAN FRONT, Sept. 2.—(Saturday)—A fresh American reserve regiment recaptured the vital city of Haman at 5 p. m. Friday (3 a. m. EDT).

After recapturing the city which lies seven miles northeast of Masan and is right in the center of the flaming southern front, the fresh reserve U. S. troops drove two miles beyond Haman to high ridges.

Enemy pressure in the all-out drive against the Allied beachhead in Korea eased Friday afternoon but at dusk again became "very heavy" with artillery and mortars blasting American positions.

Drive Not Contained

Up to the time of the filing of this dispatch, the enemy drive cannot be said to have been contained either in the U. S. 25th or Second Division sectors.

Reds Use Own Dead To Shield Their Advance

By FRANK CONNIFF

(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

ON MASAN FRONT, Korea, Sept. 2.—(Saturday)—The Reds, knowing that time is running short for them, threw everything they had into their assault on U. S. 25th Division positions Friday night.

It was a battle in which the Communists picked up their own dead to carry as shields against bullets of American machine guns, firing so incessantly it was difficult to keep the barrels from burning out.

It was the same tactic, according to American officers, that the Russians used in the siege of Stalingrad. The North Koreans, like the Russians before them, threw men into the attack in such great waves that it taxed the ammunition supply and gun strength of the Americans to keep killing them.

State Police Patrol Roads 24 Hours Daily

Hope To Keep Lawrence County Accident Free

State police, in three-way, radio-equipped fast cars, intend to patrol all state and other highways in Lawrence county, tonight, Sunday and until early Tuesday, in the hope of keeping Lawrence county free of accidents. They plan to enforce all highway traffic laws, the officer-in-charge stated. Twelve State Policemen will be on duty here.

They will be on constant duty, one is apt to be seen on an improved highway, or dirt road in the county, at any time of day or night.

State Police will watch for drivers who may be intoxicated, and also for Stop sign violators.

Autoists who drive recklessly by cutting in and out of heavy traffic lanes will be apprehended, likewise those driving cars abreast while ascending a hill.

The speed law must be obeyed. Operators should drive sufficiently fast to keep from holding back traffic. A slow, uncareful driver can contribute to accidents, it is stated.

Motorists should examine their headlights and tail lights today. One-eyed drivers will be stopped. All cars must also be equipped with proper tail lights which warn oncoming drivers, a car precedes them.

Witt Refuses To Testify

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Nathan Witt, former executive secretary of the National Labor Relations Board, today refused to testify regarding his alleged communist background.

Witt pleaded possible self-incrimination in an appearance before the House Un-American Activities Committee and invoked his constitutional privilege in refusing to answer pertinent questions.

He is one of three former government employees named by Lee Pressman as members of a communist group in 1934-35. The others, John Abt and Charles Kramer, were in the hearing room and also are expected to take the witness stand.

Named by Chambers

The three men called today were named initially as members of a Communist apparatus in the government by ex-spy Courier Whitaker Chambers two years ago. Abt, Witt and Kramer were summoned before the committee in 1948 and refused to answer questions on grounds of possible self-incrimination.

Earlier this week, Pressman took the committee witness stand, abandoned his previous refusal to answer on the same grounds, and named the three as having been dues-paying Communists.

The former CIO general counsel broke with the American Labor party on grounds it was Communist-dominated on August 10. He told the committee he quit as a card-carrying Communist in 1935 but did not completely give up his belief in the Communist movement until this year.

Chambers named Witt as the leader of the underground cell which he said included Pressman, Abt, Kramer, Alger Hiss, Donald Hiss, Victor Perlo and Henry Collins.

After listening to representatives of the munitions board and national security resources board, the conferees late yesterday split the bill into two termination dates.

The sections dealing with priorities, allocations and requisitioning of materials, facilities and services vital to national defense and the authority to expand productive facilities will continue until June 30, 1952.

That will protect defense contracts made on a two-year basis, but no new contracts could be made after June 30, 1951.

The remainder of the bill, dealing with price-wage stabilization, labor control and the settling of labor disputes would terminate June 30, 1951, unless congress extends it.

The measure, expected to be sent to the White House during the day, gives Mr. Truman authority to invoke price and wage controls on a selective basis, with ceiling mandatory in any industry where price curbs are invoked.

The chief executive also is given power to ration consumer goods—although officials say this power is not needed yet.

Austin To Press For U. N. Vote On Red Aggression

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(INS)—A U. S. spokesman indicated today that Warren R. Austin will press for a vote in the U. N. Security Council today on his resolution calling for condemnation of the North Korean Communist aggression.

Soviet delegate Jacob Malik, out of the president's chair after thirty-one days of unrelenting obstruction of western efforts to deal with the Korean conflict, will veto the U. S. resolution.

This will be the 44th veto cast by Russia in the council.

The presidency at the 3 p. m. session will be assumed by Sir Gladwyn Jebb of Britain.

Jebb told International News Service he will strive right from the start "to bring order out of shambles" and restore the 11-nation body to normal procedure and behavior.

Malik surrendered the gavel only after an afternoon of wild propaganda maneuvers, ranging from charges of aggression by the U. S. in Korea, Formosa and Manchuria to demands that the U. N. halt "terrorism" and executions in Greece.

At 8 p. m. EDT the weary council delegates finally voted on the Manchurian bombing charge by U. S. air force introduced by Malik on behalf of communist China. The communist phraseology was dropped and the item was revised to read: "Complaint of aerial bombardment of Chinese territory."

ning "moderate to heavy" while those of the enemy were "very heavy" in the Korean war's biggest battle to date.

Notwithstanding their terrible losses, the Communist invaders hurled an estimated one-third of their entire army into the huge onslaught.

Tank-led units of three North Korean divisions shattered the American "no retreat" Nakdong line with crossings in at least 17 places to the river's east bank.

The enemy troops pushed the hard-fighting U. S. Second Division back eight miles to the edges of Yongsan, only 12 miles from the Taegu-Pusan rail-highway artery, as they rapidly gouged out a growing bulge pointed eastward.

Disclosed Friday Night

This was disclosed in a Friday night dispatch from U. S. Eighth Army Field Headquarters, which said two Second Division battalions had been partially cut off north and west of Changnyong as a result of the enemy advance on Yongsan.

Changnyong is six miles north-northwest of Yongsan which in turn lies 12 miles west-southwest of Miryang, midway junction on the 55-mile rail-highway route that links the Allied cornerstone base of Taegu with the port of Pusan.

The two Second Division battalions, deeply encircled, were fighting their way back in an effort to rejoin the rest of their division.

Food, water and medicines were being dropped from planes to the two battalions struggling to avert complete enemy encirclement.

The big Communist bulge across the Nakdong was described in the late front dispatch as expanding rapidly, with enemy troops, tanks, guns and supplies pouring across the low-level river. American intelligence officer said the Reds were surging over the river at as many as 17 points.

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

DIVISION IS IN ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Lincoln spoke in another time of national crisis of a house divided against itself that cannot stand. It is a fairly safe guess that there is today more unity in the country than in Washington.

The division is in this administration. Occasionally it is revealed by such incidents as the official withdrawal of General MacArthur's speech and the controversy over Secretary of the Navy Matthews' suggestion of a preventive war.

What follows is a round of denials. Then there are bland statements that all is harmony and cooperation. This is goose grease. It cannot conceal the continuing division over American policy and what to do about it.

Secretary Matthews is an honorable man. He came to Washington from Omaha without any strong pre-conceptions on policy. No one who has even a slight knowledge of what is actually happening here can believe that he thought up the idea of a preventive war. But now he has been made to confess the blame and stand in the corner.

Had Important Support
The fact is that the preventive war theory has had important support in the Pentagon from high officials both in and out of uniform. Various phrases—such as "war to prevent defeat"—are used to mean the same thing. The following are facts that may be unknown to President Truman, but they are known to some in Washington.

1. Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson has in private talks referred to the preventive war concept. He has at various times put varying degrees of emphasis and acceptance on it.

2. Within the past two months a prominent American who once held a high government office but is now out of politics was approached by the preventive war group in the Pentagon. He was asked if he would publicly come out for it as though it were his independent judgment. Those who made the approach were hopeful that this citizen's name would lend

Reckless Gamble

There are those in the Pentagon who have more practical reasons for doubting the thesis of preventive war. They see it as a reckless and irresponsible gamble that America's B-36 bombers can knock out Russia's vital centers in one or two or three mass attacks.

Vassily Stalin, son of the dictator and chief of all of Russia's air force, recently made the flat statement that no plane no matter how high or how fast it flew could ever get over a major Soviet target. The same statement was made in the newspaper, Pravda.

Most air force officers are inclined to dismiss this as mere boasting. But some responsible officials take it far more seriously. They point to the American tendency to underestimate Russian capacities, one result of which was to fail badly on the timing of Russia's achievement of an atomic explosion. They suggest the possibility that Soviet scientists, aided by captured German scientists and technicians, may have solved the problem of a ground-to-air guided missile capable of finding any target in the air and shooting it down.

Ambassador-at-large Philip Jessup sought in a radio interview to counteract the Matthews' suggestion. He emphasized that American policy was to do everything to "maintain our security and our highest values by peaceful means."

But the division over the concept of a preventive war is only one phase of the split between the State Department and the Pentagon. So long as this split exists, there can be no coherent and affirmative policy of any kind.

CHILDREN AND THEIR PETS

The young child, even as young as three or four, whose parents don't cause him to be afraid of lowly creatures, may gain a great deal in pleasure and useful information from observing these creatures or even from helping care for them as pets. But for a child so young to handle a tiny turtle, frog, newt or the like harms this creature and may cause it to die.

Children who can enjoy the open spaces may have great fun catching tadpoles or minnows and keeping them in water. Under proper guidance these children may learn much useful information and gain in moral growth. Otherwise they may hold the creature out of water, causing it to die, or leave it in unchanged or unbalanced water where it will perish. Obviously, the moral damage to the children then is very bad, indeed.

Two to Five

The child from two to five may handle a gentle cat or puppy very roughly, even torturing it for fun. Unless this child is well guided in his relation to the pet, a mother writes of her son, four: "When he gets his cat he may play gently and lovingly, or he may blow in her ears and shout in glee. Or he may paint her nose with water colors. Once he put her down into the toilet. Another time he singed her whiskers at the gas stove. He has always been inclined to tease our dog which had been a great pet in our family until our child was born. Our dog was extremely jealous of the baby and has only recently shown inclination to enjoy Robert's presence. Is this child's teasing and sometimes cruel attitude to the dog a natural reaction to the dog's unfriendliness?"

In substance I wrote this mother: You are correct in being sorry for the cat and dog and wishing to protect them. But a much bigger problem is the moral damage to your son from your letting him torture these creatures. You could, of course, dispose of the pets. But this would deprive you of means for educating him in proper treatment of such creatures.

Train The Child
As this matter is so important, you can afford to neglect practically all other things in order to train this child to be gentle toward these pets. You and Dad should devise a plan by which one of you parents will be on hand when either pet is exposed to this child. When you can't be right there during the next few weeks, be sure the pet is beyond the child's reach.

Always, when this lad tortures either pet, turn him over your knees and smack him with your bare flat hand on his bare thighs. Be sure it hurts and is immediate and that he never again can give the pet pain without receiving instant pain himself. After the youngster begins to respect your forbiddance of his cruelty, you can abandon spanking and substitute chair-sitting for 20 minutes as a penalty. (Good techniques in obedience are presented in my bulletin "How To Teach Child Meaningful No," to be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.) Use only your hand to effect forbiddance. You have already shrieked at him too much. But when he pets or strokes the pet or shows tenderness to it in any other way, praise him generously.

Mrs. Myers and I consider this problem of educating the child from his early years in kindness to dumb animals so important that we have devoted a large space to it in our forthcoming book, "Homes Build Persons."

At last Little Sister can get even with Junior and his Christmas gift drum. A new doll on the market howls, screams and sheds tears.

Remember the good old days when the only thing we had to argue about was whether the National or the American League had the better baseball team.

England's Bonnie Prince Charlie is about to discover that he isn't the No. 1 personality in this universe. Charlie, like many another male moppet, now has a baby sister.

Showing Of Glad Rags

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

PARIS, France—I imagine that thousands if not hundreds of thousands of American women would have loved to have swapped places with me between the hours of 3 and 6 yesterday afternoon.

It is a mortal cinch that I wish they could have.

For during the hours between 3 and 6 I was on the third floor of Avenue Montaigne going through what can only be adequately described by a four-letter word which begins with H and ends with L.

It is on the third floor of 30 Avenue Montaigne, just a few blocks off the Champs Elysees, that the arch-enemy of American husbands, Christian Dior, is showing his autumn and winter collection of glad rags.

My Wife Insisted
Why did I go? I went because my wife insisted that I go, and don't tell me you never went any place you didn't want to go just because your wife insisted on it. That settles that, I hope.

M. Dior's place is not an easy one to get into, and it is even tougher to get out.

To get in you almost have to have a letter from President Truman, in which he crosses his heart and hopes to die that you are not in the fashion business, have no friends who are in the fashion business, that you don't know how to stitch, that you won't run back to your sewing machine and stitch up a dress like any you've seen there.

To get out, you have to wait until models parade 191 outfits before bona fide buyers and as many women as can get in the three sumptuous showrooms, and as many husbands as can be dragged along. For everyone who gets in, hundreds are turned away, and trying to get up the stairs is like trying to get a hot dog between Jaws and the Yale Bowl.

Just as I was given gilded damask-covered chairs on what was about, I suppose, the 30-yard

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Today our column is made up from Daniel Racioppo's booklet, "Is Your Brain Itchy?" He stumps us on some of his problems but may be you do better?

1. If you were given the choice of starting at $2,400 per year with an annual increase of $100 or $2,400 with semi-annual increases of $25, which should you take?
2. A steel worker went into a store to buy 1 1/4 pounds of meat. He laid down the correct amount of money. The clerk "carelessly" cut 25 cents more than was ordered, whereupon the customer asked the clerk for exactly half of what the clerk had cut and took back 10 cents of the money laid down. What was the cost of the meat per pound?
3. A certain thrifty girl found that she could save money by taking the stumps of her lipsticks and sticking them together to make a whole stick. Each stump was one-fifth as long as the original one. Over a period of time she had bought 125 new sticks. What was her last homemade one?
4. Which weighs more, a pound of gold or a pound of feathers?
5. Mamma, Papa and Baby Dumping are having a hilarious time playing with the new dog. In his excitement Baby said, "Aren't we five, having a lot of fun?" How did he get five?

Right To Vote Against

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1.—As a sneak preview of what could happen if Congress passes a really repressive anti-Red law, there's the story of what's now happening in the not-so-Free State of Maryland.

Three members of the Progressive Party recently turned up to file for election to the offices of Governor, U. S. Senator and Representative. They were told that under the Over Law they must first swear a loyalty oath. This they refused to do and they were then refused the chance to run for office.

The superficial viewpoint is that it serves the rascals right and to heck with them. But a closer scrutiny would bring the matter into better focus. The loyalty oath which the law requires is quite a misnomer. It goes far beyond the familiar school room recitation to "pledge allegiance to this flag and to the Republic for which it stands." Under the Over Law a candidate for elective or appointive office must confess or renounce membership in any group that may be judged subversive.

But Who's The Judge?

But who's the judge of this subversion-by-association? Under the Maryland law a $6500-a-year assistant Attorney General is administrator of the loyalty program. Upon his advice the election officials can refuse to register a candidate. Today, it's true that the unregistered candidates are Progressive Party liners. Tomorrow, politics what it is, some assistant Attorney General may find that the dirty Democrats (or low-down Republicans) have a candidate whom the boss wants removed from the ticket. And where do we go from there?

It's evident also that the typical anti-Red law doesn't penalize the Reds so much as it penalizes the mass of voters. These Maryland Progressives, of course, have no realistic chance of getting elected whether they're on the ballot or not. If allowed to run, they would be the forgotten men of the election season. But when they were forbidden to run, they promptly appealed to the courts and will now remain on the front page with the Korean War or on the inside pages with the account of births, marriages and club notices; in brief, with the day-to-day history of decent community life.

Privilege Has Been Denied

Meanwhile, all normal two-party citizens have been denied the community privilege of defeating, degrading and ridiculing the Progressive candidates. Since it's axiom of politics that people relish the power to "vote against" even more than the power to "vote for," the right to withhold ballot box approval is probably more precious than the right to bestow it. In most dictatorships the people are freely allowed to vote "YES." The point is that they are not allowed to vote "NO." So who gets robbed under laws like the Over Law—the mass of citizens or the would-be Red candidates?

There might be sounder arguments in favor of such laws if it weren't for a couple of recent events in American public life.

During August the television audiences were treated to the spectacle of Comrade Malik indulging himself in the right to free speech. It's doubtful if any right-winger from Wall Street or Main Street could have stirred more anti-Red feeling than Malik who now rates in the popularity polls just above Judas Iscariot.

Poor Henry Wallace

The same month of August gave us a glimpse through the madhouse window of poor Henry Wallace. Just two years ago I sat in the press box at Shibe Park, Philadelphia, and saw Henry pucker up and sound the bugle for Gideon's Army. As presidential candidate of the Progressives, he was seriously expected to poll 10 million votes, to change the political configuration of the two-party nation and to corrupt American youth to Communism.

Everybody remembers what happened. Henry frothed in many public places, but the crowds got bored and began to stay home. On a trip to the Carolinas he afforded natives the wonderful fun of pelting him with Federally-subsidized eggs. On Election Day he got one-tenth of the votes which the experts at first conceded him, and last month he quit the Progressive Party and went back to the barnyard.

Such has long been the American way of dealing with political deviants. The voting public has a certain genius for the art of giving each candidate his due of approbation, deflation and ridicule. Congress should pass no law to stifle this genius or to abridge the fun of not voting for a future Henry Wallace.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

No more opportunities in America?

No "free enterprise"?

No more incentives for hard work and the practice of the Golden Rule?

Listen to this:

This morning I went to a little jewelry store in Norwalk, Conn., to have my watch repaired.

But there was something in that little store which I had not seen there before.

The fixtures were all new and shiny. There was a more modern and more tasteful display of merchandise. The show window was dressed up like a 1950 show window and not like something that belonged to the last century.

But what attracted my attention more than anything else was a huge floral piece of gladiolus with a ribbon attached to it, reading "GOOD LUCK."

"What's the big idea?" I asked the young watchmaker who had done our repair work for several years and who is an excellent craftsman but a very shy individual.

He blushed and almost stammered: "I own this place now."

I knew very little about the chap. But, with the natural curiosity of the newspaperman, I pumped a few facts out of him.

I knew that he had escaped from Hitler's persecutions twelve years ago, when he was only seventeen years old.

I knew that he had learned the watchmaking trade in Germany.

I knew that he had met a "very sweet" refugee girl here in the U. S. A. and married her, that he had bought a home and is the father of, as he expressed it, "one-and-a-half children."

But that is about as far as it went.

Today he was like a new man. There was self-confidence in him, elation, a glow that I had never noticed before.

"I own this place now"—I guess that was it.

Canada's Northwest Territories have a land-water total area of 1,304,903 square miles.

When I was ready to leave I wished the new "small business man" all the luck in the world and expressed the hope that he would some day be a millionaire.

"I don't want to be a millionaire," he said. "All I want is peace of mind—and to have my family proud of me."

Could a millionaire ask for more?

A cub reporter rushed back from the livestock show he had been assigned to cover.

"I've got the perfect news story," he told the city editor.

"Man, calm down," said the editor. "What happened?"

"Well," replied the reporter, "a bull threw a Congressman."—Exchange.

THREE DIVORCE COMPLAINTS

Three complaints in divorce have been filed in the office of Prothonotary John A. Edgar.

Catherine M. Cumberland, of 210 Montgomery avenue, is asking a divorce from Claude H. Cumberland, of 23 Round street, charging indignities. They were married July 27, 1947, in Pittsburgh.

Howard Leroy Barge, of Neshannock township, is asking for a divorce from Lillian Barge, of 465 Neshannock avenue, New Castle. In connection therewith, he has asked that a guardian be named inasmuch as Lillian Barge is a minor and requests the court to appoint her stepfather, Oscar Wukovich, as her guardian. He resides in Shenango township. Indignities are charged in the complaint.

Alfred Giancotti, of 921 Croton avenue, asks a divorce from Marlene M. Giancotti, of 221 Duquesne Boulevard, Duquesne, Pa., charging cruel and barbarous treatment. They were married December 1, 1949. # City Of Haman Reported As Shambles Now

By JOHN RICH
(U. S. War Correspondent)
U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Sept. 1.—The city of Haman was described today as a "shambles in no man's land."
Haman was the center of bitter fighting along the south coast front.
A spokesman at Eighth Army Headquarters said that the situation at Haman is "obscure" and an air force spokesman said "we are bombing everything from Haman West."
One company of the 24th Infantry regiment was cut off on a hill as the enemy penetrated four or five miles southwest of Haman. But later this company renewed contact with its parent force.
Enemy reconnaissance patrols today reached within six miles of Haman, south coast port second in importance only to Pusan. But headquarters said these patrols "are being contained."
Attack on 30 Mile Front
An estimated five to six Communist regiments of the Sixth and Seventh Divisions are attacking along a 30 mile front against the U. S. 25th Division.
A spokesman for the 25th said that 15 enemy tanks were spotted and nine of them were knocked out. He reported that 1,000 enemy troops were killed in this sector in the last 12 hours.
This spokesman described the situation at Masan as "very serious but not critical."

An unconfirmed report from the Second Division sector said the Ninth Regimental combat team had been cut off south of Pungong-Ni.
It reportedly has not been heard from for at least five hours. Eighth Army Headquarters said it could neither confirm nor deny the report.
The second division was engaged in exceptionally bitter fighting in the Pungong-Ni sector. Then enemy made a five mile penetration there but headquarters said the front now is being stabilized "to a certain extent."

Small Boys Robs 9-Year Old Girl

Extradition Of Four Men Sought

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 1.—(INS)—Acting Governor Samuel L. Bodine today issued a requisition on Governor Forrest Smith of Missouri for the extradition to New Jersey of four men accused of conspiring with the Western Union Telegraph Co. to violate New Jersey's gambling laws.

The men, Charles J. Rich, Sidney Wyman, Edward B. Fischer and Ralph Leon, were indicted by the Cumberland county grand jury June 6 with Western Union and the manager of its Bridgeton, N. J., office, Charles H. Frake. This followed a raid on the Bridgeton office by agents of Attorney General Theodore Parsons and State Police.

The grand jury charged Western Union accepted horse racing bets for the Missourians and telegraphed the bets to the four men at Wellston, Mo., outside St. Louis. Missouri authorities raided the Wellston place after Governor Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey tipped Governor Smith of its existence.

Truckers Enjoy Corn-Spare Ribs

Piles of bare spare rib bones and a small mountain of corn cobs are piled up at "Jellocol" today, the remnants of the annual corn roast of the Lawrence County Chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck association, held Thursday night.

Each year Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Pearsall are hosts to the chapter at "Jellocol", their home near Neshannock Falls. And each year Mrs. Pearsall demonstrates a genius with barbecued spare ribs, does things to them that defy analysis, but produce some tremendous appetites.

About fifty attended. Due to the rain the food was served in the garage instead of outdoors but the weather meant nothing to those appetites. During the evening Mrs. Reva D. Gormley presented Mrs. Pearsall with an aluminum turkey tray as a token from the chapter.

BACK TO SCHOOL WITH NEW CLOTHES

All little girls look forward to having at least one new dress and new shoes for the first day of school. Boys are not so much interested in new clothes as girls, but those extra inches acquired during vacation have to be considered. Boys will need replacements in T shirts, slacks, overalls and shoes.

It is easier on the clothes budget if garments are bought only as they are needed. Mothers find if they buy clothes too far in advance, garments are either too large or too small.

Dark cottons and plaid gingham are good choices for little girls for early fall. Wool checks and plaids, jersey, and corduroy are suitable for dresses, skirts, or jackets that will be needed for cooler days.

Costume themes for the younger generation is a fashion note copied from the grown-ups. The cotton dress plus jersey plus corduroy, jackets with jumpers, and coat linings to match suits are examples of this trend.

A wide selection of mix-and-match makes in both boys and girls clothing makes it interesting and easier to choose clothes that have a well put-together look. The sailor girl or midly influence is seen in sweaters, jackets, and coats. There is a growing trend for sister fashions as well as brother and sister togs.

Every boy and girl needs some rainy day apparel. One of the most serviceable rainwear ensembles is the water repellent all-weather coat, available in a variety of fabrics, such as wool, corduroy, cotton, or rayon. Select rainwear in bright colors which act as a safety aid for the children on highways and in traffic. Children will need rain hats and overshoes for those rainy days.

PACK A LUNCH THAT PACKS A PUNCH

Thousands of children go back to school in September. Many of them face eating a cold lunch at noon 180 times during the next nine months. Fortunate are the boys and girls who can get a hot lunch at school or have a hot food in their packed lunch they bring from home.

A carefully planned packed lunch can provide one-third of the daily food needs of the child to give him energy for work and play. A good lunch also helps keep a child happy and congenial, easy to get along with.

A cup of hot soup, carried in a thermos bottle, two or three generous sandwiches, a dish of salad or custard, a raw relish, and an orange is a good lunch for any child. There is no end to the variety that can be accomplished with this basic lunch pattern.

As sandwiches usually are considered the mainstay of the school lunch, give them special attention. Two types of sandwich filling are not too many for a lunch. Two sandwiches should have a hearty filling. Meat, fish, baked beans, poultry, eggs, and cheese, are good for hearty fillings. For a lighter filling, peanut butter mixed with honey, ground dates, or raisins, or jelly may be used.

Vegetable salad, mixed fruits, or a custard may be put into a small jar with a tight fitting cover. Cookies or fruits are more satisfactory for dessert than pie or cake. Include a raw relish such as carrot sticks, celery, cabbage wedges, or radishes, in the lunch box every day.

Milk is a must in the lunch box for every child. He should have at least a half pint. Some schools provide milk although there is no hot lunch.

HOME WEDDING

"The following questions concern a home wedding to take place in the evening. I am to be a guest: (1) Should the invitation be acknowledged in writing, worded formally? If so, give me the wording. (2) May I wear black? I am in my middle sixties. (3) Are long gloves essential with evening clothes? (4) Should short gloves be kept on during the service? What should be done with them during the reception?"

Answer: (1) If the invitations are formal, they should be acknowledged in ink in the third personal form, for example:

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones accept with pleasure (or regret that they are unable to accept)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith's kind invitation for (day—date—month) (at time)

The time is mentioned only in the case of an acceptance.

(2) Yes. The bride, her attendants and close members of her family should not wear black which is considered too sober for a wedding but since you are merely a guest, and past middle age, you may disregard this rule and wear black.

(3) They are indeed preferable, especially with short or cap sleeves.

(4) Either long or short gloves may be kept on during the reception when refreshments are served.

Question: How long should a mother wait after the baby's birth to send out announcements?

Answer: They are usually sent out immediately.

Present your problems to Miss Markle who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

Kiddies Hankerin' For Musical Shows

COLUMBUS, O.—(INS)—Parental ears backed off a bit when a survey group studying the radio likes of some 600 children reported the results.

The younger set—these ranged from 3 to 18 years—went to work on questionnaires.

Music—not cowboys—came out the top favorite.

The kids picked the "Hit Parade" for first place but elsewhere they indicated a desire for more classical stuff.

The bobby soxers in the group either turned traitor or could not muster enough support for the crooning trade which turned up well down the list.

DRESS DOUGHNUTS

While they are still warm, spread each doughnut section with butter or margarine and sprinkle with sugar or cinnamon. Serve these taste-tantalizing treats at meals or for summertime snacks.

Will Open Six New Hospitals

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The Veterans Administration announced that it will open six new hospitals next month to provide space for veterans crowded out of service hospitals by Korean war casualties.

The new hospitals, with a total of 1,450 beds, are in Saginaw, Mich., Marlin, Texas, Grand Island, Neb., Spokane, Wash., Shreveport, La., and Altoona, Pa.

LOVE HUNGRY

HOLLYWOOD.—(INS)—Strictly for the sake of art, Jose Ferrer starved himself for a full day before his big love scene with Mala Powers in "Cyrano De Bergerac". The actor explained that he went on the fast because "hunger gives that same longing look as love".

Scoring Devices Aid U. S. Airmen

DAYTON, O.—(INS)—The U. S. Air Force is using special electronic scoring devices these days to show pilots just what mistakes they make and why they make them.

The flying detectives, currently in use at the air materiel command's aero-medical laboratory at Dayton's Wright Field, are confirming much information gathered under simulated conditions of flight.

The devices, installed in a flying laboratory, record how a pilot handles aileron, elevator, rudder, throttle and prop governor positions, elevator, rudder and aileron pressure, air speed, altitude, angle of bank, vertical speed, glide, path, localizer, rate of turn, pitch, inclinometer and grip tension on the control wheel.

A voice recorder and a strategically-placed motion picture camera round out the picture by recording the pilot's comments and his eye and body movements during test flights.

The entire project is designed to find out the best arrangement for the complex instruments of modern aircraft and the best lighting for those instruments.

MALE NEEDLER

Consumption of aspirin in America has quadrupled since 1929.

TOOL ENGINEERING

PHILADELPHIA.—(INS)—Engineer John Vanhamersveld says that tool engineering helps to cut airplane designing costs. Vanhamersveld said in Philadelphia: "Designing is a form of manufacturing. To cut costs we just step up efficiency as we do in a plant—by providing the designer with the proper design techniques, processing methods and equipment." He pointed out that information given to a designer acts as a "tool" and that the more tools he has, the easier his job, and the lower the cost of his product.

New Castle Speaks

(A Series of Discussions To Be Run Weekly, Based Upon the Ketchum Survey in New Castle)

NEW CASTLE. A GOOD PLACE TO CALL HOME

When we consider establishing a home for our family, we look for one that will become permanent. Construction and appearance of the home are important, but the location is of major concern. We want the community to be a good place in which to bring up our children, one in which we can enjoy good living.

The recent Greater New Castle Association public relations study pointed out that New Castle has all the qualities that make it "a Good Place to Call Home."

We have a city that is remarkably free from major crime. Our crime rate is only one fourth the rate of other cities in this section of the United States.

Our moral consciousness, inspired by our many churches with their large church membership, makes life in this community run more smoothly. We can live and work together knowing that our fellow townsmen are morally strong because of the churches' steady influence. We can raise a family with the assurance that our children will know the difference between right and wrong.

We New Castle citizens are loyal to our home town. We patronize New Castle stores and banks. We hate to move from this city. Many of us have come back here to live after finding other places did not have what we wanted.

All these qualities and the many economic advantages that New Castle has to offer make this city an ideal place in which to live and work. For a business or for a family New Castle is truly "a Good Place to Call Home."

Mrs. Victoria Claflin Woodhull (for Martin) in 1872 was the first woman nominated for the presidency. She was a candidate of the Equal Rights party.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP

R. D. Marriner, president of the American Book company, is a native of Belmont, Me., and proud of it. At the convention of textbook manufacturers, Marriner indignantly refuted Dennis O'Shea's allegation that, "Maine has only two seasons: winter and poor sleet."

Rossini, the Italian composer, claimed that everything he saw suggested a melody to him. "Show me a laundry list," he boasted, "and I'll set it to music." "How wonderful my opera would be," "if there were no singers."

At a very swank restaurant, Leonora Corbett overheard two ladies carving up an absent acquaintance. "Wasn't her husband a judge?" asked the first. "That was the general impression," replied the other, "until he married her."

Allegheny County Fair Opens To Large Crowd

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Allegheny County's annual fair got off to a good start yesterday despite rain that soaked some 110,000 opening day visitors but failed to dampen their spirits.

A number of outdoor exhibits had to be cancelled and the fireworks display went on early, but otherwise the opening was a big success.

The fair will continue for four more days.

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 1.—The stenographers at Paramount studio let Laurence Olivier keep his mustache for his starring role in "Carrie," the new film title of Theodore Dreiser's somber classic, "Sister Carrie."

The studio bigwigs could not make up their minds on the mustache. Half of them wanted Olivier to shave it off. The others thought it would enhance the screen portrayal.

They decided to let 70 stenographers have the final say.

The girls put up their typewriters and shorthand notebooks for an hour one day last week, trooped to a projection room and saw Laurence Olivier film clips—with and without the mustache.

Vote For Mustache

The girls voted 65 to 5 for the British actor to keep his mustache for "Carrie" which will have him making romantic screen love to Jennifer Jones.

The stenographers all said that Olivier "just looked the part of a wealthy New Yorker—with gray around his temples and the mustache and everything."

They said that without the mustache he looked "too ordinary."

Olivier welcomed the stenographers' decision. He said he would hate to shave it off. He said it almost killed him to eliminate it for "Hamlet" and he swore that he would put up a good fight before he did it again.

DO ONIONS CAUSE BACKACHE

Butch tells Grand dad that onions cause backache. He didn't mean to eat them but to weed them.

Grand dad isn't as good a weeder as he used to be. His back is rather stiff and he can't stoop over so well.

He tries anyhow.

Butch has no trouble stooping over but he would rather play ball. Exercise in the open air is good. Weeding or playing or walking or motoring or ploughing or necking are all helpful.

Butch and Grand dad do not do very much of the latter but that is what helped to make him a grand dad.

Butch will fall head over heels in love some day. That is, good exercise too.

Suggests New Solution For A-Bomb Defense

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—A Democratic leader suggested today the construction of "underground buildings" as a possible solution to the danger of atomic attacks on key government offices.

Chairman Cannon (D) Mo., of the House appropriations committee characterized as "ridiculous" the administration's proposal to erect new government buildings in communities within commuting distance of Washington.

President Truman asked Congress to appropriate $139,800,000 to "initiate a long-range plan to insure the continuity of essential functions of government in the event of emergency." New buildings, three stories high, would be constructed in four to ten communities near Washington.

Would Be Useless

Cannon estimated that it would take close to a half billion dollars to carry out the entire program and said it would be "useless because if an enemy got as far as Washington it would take him only a few minutes more to reach adjacent areas and bomb the new buildings."

The Missourian, whose committee must pass upon the presidential request for funds, said it would be best to locate the buildings far enough away from the coast so that enemy planes would have difficulty reaching them. He suggested as possible locations St. Louis, Chicago, Denver, and Houston, Texas.

Cannon added in an interview that if the government felt it was necessary to keep certain key agencies and their important records nearer the capital, "then they should put the buildings underground."

Beaver Valley Bus Drivers To Remain At Work

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The strike status of five Pittsburgh district bus lines was unchanged today, but a marathon meeting of negotiators averted a walkout at the Beaver Valley Motor Coach Company.

AFL union negotiators promised to keep the Beaver Valley buses rolling until Sept. 15 after the company made a new offer early today. This will keep 80 drivers on the job and insure transportation for about 15,000 commuters.

There were indications a settlement may be reached soon in the Debolt Transit strike. The company has offered a seven-cent hourly wage increase this year followed by six cents hourly next year.

Union officials hinted the offer could result in settlement if a work week dispute can be resolved.

Negotiations with Brentwood Motor Coach, West Side, Oriole Motor Coach and Penn Transit have not achieved much to date.

Florida has a longer coastline than any other state in the Union.

Players Club Plans To Present Plays

Patrons of the theater will be able to see local talent on the stage soon. The Players Club of New Castle will cast three one-act plays starting with a farce comedy, "You've Got a Nerve," which will be directed by Bart Fletcher of New Castle.

Tryouts and casting will take place at the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday evening, September 7, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Marion Stafford, formerly of Philadelphia, and her co-directors Bart Fletcher and Carl Cotton, stated at a meeting of the club last evening that there will be several good male parts open during casting next week.

During the meeting four plays were read, and a fine assortment of talent uncovered. In the group two exceptional young men will try out for a difficult part as a Japanese house-boy. The names of the men were withheld from publication till the entire play has been cast.

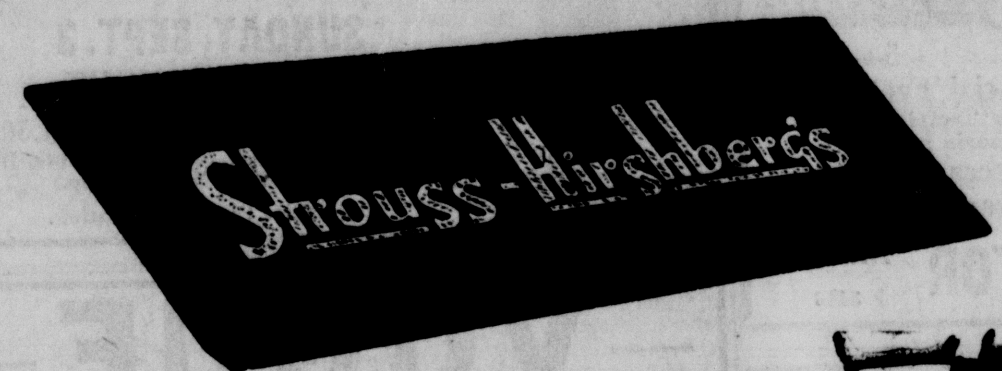

Two comedies and a drama were among the plays heard during readings last night. These plays will be cast in the very near future, it was announced. The club is looking for additional talent in the arts and crafts of the theater as well as for acting ability.

Safety Drive Being Planned

Seek To Reduce Traffic Accidents
Of School Children

HARRISBURG, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The governor's highway safety advisory committee today launched a campaign to reduce traffic accidents among school children.

The committee intends to enroll every school child in Pennsylvania in the program which will provide them with incentive to observe traffic rules and regulations. Various honors will be awarded to schools having no traffic accidents.

The plan is called the "green pennant program" and each school enrolled will receive a green pennant if it goes without an accident for 30 consecutive days. For more than 30 days, each pupil receives a button.

For each succeeding 30 accident-free days, the school is awarded a "green cross for safety" emblem to be sewn on the pennant. A school completing the entire school year without incident receives a gold star for the pennant and a framed certificate for display.

If at any time a school child is in a traffic accident, the school loses every award and must start over again.

The program will be in operation 24 hours-a-day, seven days-a-week, at school, to and from school, and at play.

It will be directed by State Co-

Puerto Rico Is In Path Of Hurricane

MIAMI, Sept. 1.—(INS)—A hurricane seething with winds up to 140 miles an hour battered its way toward thickly populated Puerto Rico today, about 1,200 miles from the Florida mainland.

The Weather Bureau in San Juan, P. R., reported at 5:30 a. m. (EST) that the fourth—and probably most dangerous—disturbance of the season was 20 miles west of Antigua. The tiny island was buffeted by the blasts of another hurricane less than two weeks ago.

The center of the newest storm was located near latitude 17.1 north and longitude 62.2 west. Blasts of hurricane force extended out from the storm's "eye" 50 to 70 miles to the north and east, and 40 to 50 miles to the south and west. Hurricane warnings were hoisted from Guadeloupe to the Virgin Islands, while northeast storm warnings were up along the Puerto Rican coasts. Dominica was ordered to raise southwest storm warnings.

SHARON DOCTOR NAMED

HARRISBURG, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Appointment of Dr. Myron M. Murstein, Rep., of Sharon, as a member of the Mercer County Board of Assistance was announced today by Gov. James H. Duff. Dr. Murstein succeeds the late Jacob B. Goldberg, of Sharon.

Torchlight Parade Precedes Attack

ON THE MASAN FRONT, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The Big Communist offensive that began last midnight across the Nakong river was preceded by a strange torchlight parade by about 2,000 North Koreans on the west bank.

It is believed that the North Koreans used electric torches. Eyewitnesses said the fantastic light formations were turned on and off at will by the paraders when American artillery thrice opened up on them.

The torchlight parade was in the area opposite Pungong-Ni, 27 miles southwest of Taegu. A witness of the pre-attack exhibition said: "First they formed the letter 'Z'. Then when our artillery hit they reformed their ranks into the letter 'O'. After that they made the letter 'V'. The first attack crossings of the river came shortly thereafter.

Alfred Nobel made the money he left for Nobel prizes from his invention of dynamite, manufacture of glycerine and operation of oil wells in Russia.

Stolen Kiss Causes Death Of Young Girl

DOVER, N. H., Sept. 1.—(INS)—A stolen kiss in the back seat of a speeding automobile cost the life of a 17-year-old girl today.

The girl, Etta "Tootsie" Frisbee, either fell or was pushed from the car to her death as she fought off the efforts of one of three youths to kiss her.

A 15-year-old friend of the victim Corina Ruest, said she and Etta went with the boys on a blind date. The younger girl said she did not know the boys very well and could not identify them for police.

U. S. Observation Plan Shot Down By Korean Plane

(BULLETIN)
FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Two all-black Russian-made North Korean planes shot down an unarmed American observation plane eight miles southeast of Kunwi today. The pilot of the spotter plane was listed as missing.

The enemy planes, apparently painted to hide other insignia, were a Yak and two-seater IL-10, both Russian-made aircraft.

The two enemy fighter planes were escorting a two-engine enemy transport plane north of Tae-gu when the American spotter plane was encountered.

After downing the spotter plane, the enemy aircraft dropped propaganda leaflets over South Korean infantry lines which they strafed. It was the first offensive air action by the North Korean invaders against allied infantry or against American planes since the earliest days of the war. A few weeks ago, Yaks did attack a British destroyer.

Fares Are Set For Turnpike

Complete Rates
For 327-Mile Long
Road Announced

HARRISBURG, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission today released complete fares for all types of vehicles which will use the 327-mile long toll road when completed.

The PTC said the $2.25 passenger car round-trip ticket over the present 160-mile stretch from Carlisle to Irwin has been eliminated, effective today, and the $1.50 one-way fare remains unchanged.

A $1.20 fare will be assessed for passenger car travel over the 101 eastern extension from Middletown to King of Prussia, scheduled to open in October.

It will cost motorists 75 cents to travel the 67-mile western extension from Irwin to the Ohio state line. The section will be completed in late 1951.

When the entire highway is open the border-to-border fare for passenger cars will be $3.25.

Tickets from King of Prussia to Irwin will cost $2.50 for motorists. Motorcyclists will pay 70 cents to use the eastern extension and 60 cents for the western end. They now pay $1 on the main stretch.

Truck fares are substantially higher and are fixed according to size and weight. Fares will range from $6.25 to $20.50 for the entire trip.

The commission said fare charts are being sent to all trucking firms in the state. Out-of-state vehicles will be charged according to tire size.

Bus Rates

Buses will be charged from $6.25 to $12.25 for the 327-mile ride. The pay-as-you-leave system used on the present turnpike will be in effect on the new section. Motorists will be given a ticket identifying the interchange they enter and will pay toll at the one they leave.

All tolls from interchange to interchange remain effective on the main roadway.

Fares on the eastern section:

From Carlisle to the Gettysburg Pike interchange, 15 cents; to Harrisburg West Shore, 20 cents; to Harrisburg East Shore, 30 cents; to Lebanon-Lancaster, 55 cents; to Reading, 70 cents; to Morgantown, 85 cents; to Downingtown, $1; to Valley Forge, $1.20.

For the western extension:

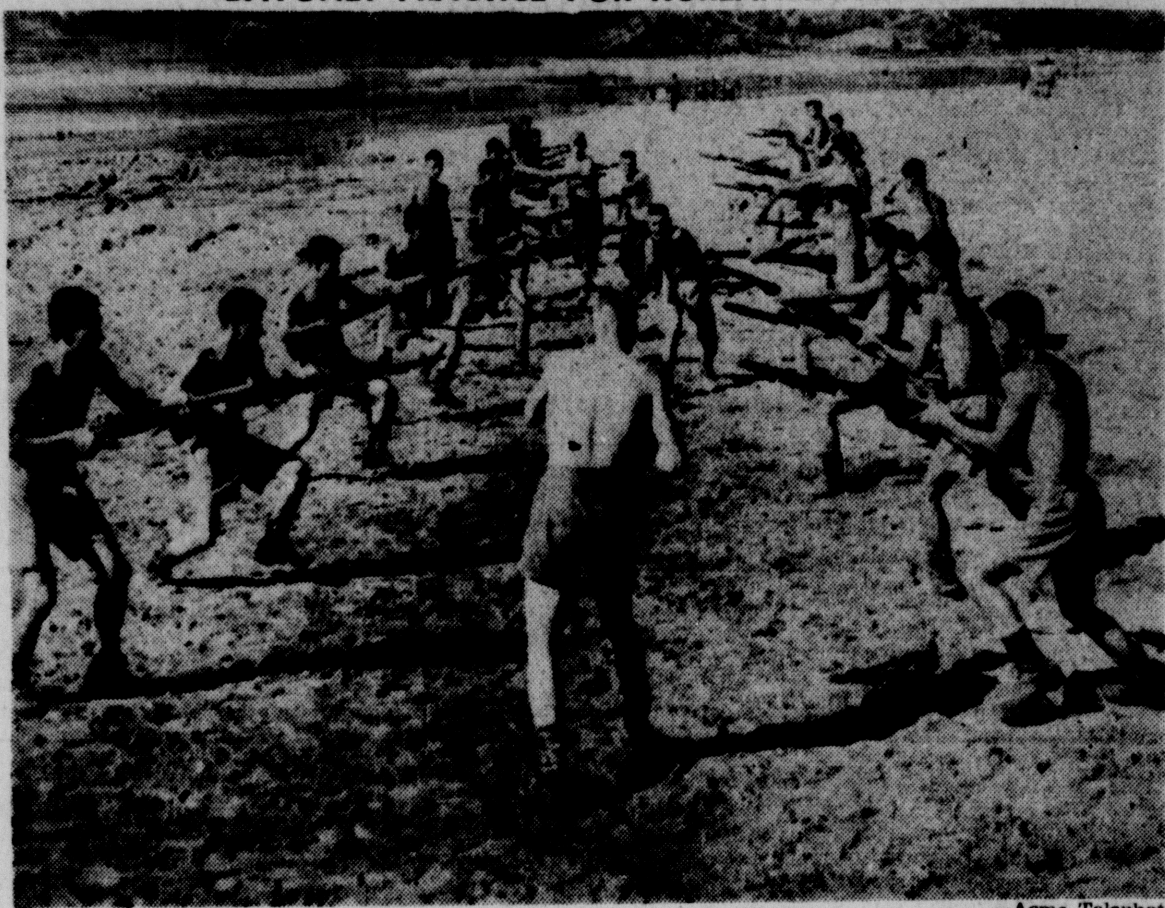

From gateway (Ohio line) to Beaver Valley, 25c; to Perry highway, 30 cents; to Butler Valley, 45 cents; to Allegheny Valley, 55 cents; to Pittsburgh, 65 cents and to Irwin, 75 cents.

State Highways Secretary Ray F. Smock announced all available state highway routes into, through and around Philadelphia will be adequately marked by the time traffic rolls off the eastern extension October 1.

WORK STREAMLINED

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—One local woman has found the answer to doing her housework and keeping an eye on her baby. When she hangs out her washing, she puts the baby in the clothespin bag, hangs it on the line and pushes it along ahead of her as she puts up the clothes.

BAYONET PRACTICE FOR KOREAN INFANTRY

NEAR TAEGU, KOREA—South Korean soldiers receive bayonet instruction from members of the United States 1st Cavalry between battles against the North Korean forces. First time available is spent in this fashion to help make the South Korean a better soldier for combat.

North Korean War Industry Bomb Wrecked

TOKYO, Sept. 1.—(INS)—A second major North Korean war industry zone—Chinnampo—was in the process of being removed today from the B-29 target list as incapable of further contribution to the war.

Chinnampo, which lies 20 miles southwest of the Red capital of Pyongyang on the Yellow Sea, was blasted Thursday by a 600-ton bomb attack.

Col. Charles G. Bondley, chief of staff, recommended to Bomber Command Chief Maj. Gen. Emmett O'Donnell that Chinnampo be abandoned as a target.

The Bell Center, O., colonel, who flew as air commander and coordinator for the attack, said:

"Our operations analysts who have examined photos and studied bombardier reports agree that little if any contribution can be made by this (Chinnampo) complex after the airforce attack of yesterday."

The first major industrial target stricken from the bomber command's list was the Hungnam (Konan) nitrogen fertilizer and explosive plant installation, removed last week.

Col. Bondley made 10 separate runs over the target with B-29 formations Thursday. Chinnampo was the site of chemical and metal plants.

The inventor of the typewriter, Christopher Latham Sholes, and his associate, James Densmore, invented the arrangement of the typewriter keyboard.

EATING BETWEEN BOMBING MISSIONS

JAPAN—A U. S. Air Force B-29 crew receives cookies and milk after returning from a mission over North Korea. The men eat the cookies and drink the milk while they are briefed for another mission.

Employment Is Increased

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The census bureau reported today that total U. S. civilian employment increased by 1,153,000 workers and reached an all-time record level in August.

Early effects of the Korean war and the general food condition of the nation's economy were directed credited to the rise which boosted total farm, industrial and business employment to 62,367,000.

This was 752,000 above the previous record set in July, 1948, when employment totalled 61,615,000.

Commerce Secretary Sawyer commented:

"The economy was gradually moving toward full employment before the Korean crisis. With increasing defense preparations, it may be expected that this trend will continue at an accelerated pace."

A breakdown of census figures showed that farm employment dropped 280,000, but this was made up by a huge 1,433,000 increase in non-farm job ranks.

With the rise in employment, the number of persons out of work showed a sharp decline, dropping 700,000 below the July level. Jobless ranks totalled 2,500,000, the lowest since January, 1949.

May Hear Witnesses Protesting O'Dwyer's Ambassador Job

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Chairman Connally (D) Tex., announced today that the Senate foreign relations committee will hold at least some public hearings to hear witnesses protesting New York Mayor O'Dwyer's nomination as ambassador to Mexico.

Connally said that Rep. Marcantonio (ALP) New York, and Arthur Schutler, American labor party secretary, had asked that Edward J. Flynn be questioned about alleged "machinations" behind O'Dwyer's nomination.

The chairman said about "15 or 20" letters objecting to the nomination had been received.

The foreign relations committee did not discuss O'Dwyer's case at its closed session today, however.

Connally told newsmen the nomination will be taken up next week. In reply to questions about hearings and calling witnesses, he said:

"We might call a few."

Connally said the committee would not call Flynn, but would hear him "if he wants to come."

He said the same would reply to O'Dwyer himself.

The chairman said the list of objectors to the nomination included:

Rowland Watts, Workers Defense League; Philip T. Grussy, Elmhurst, L. I.; Herman Holst, Brooklyn; Florence M. P. Van Kirk, New York City; Mrs. India Shapiro, New York, and Henry V. Poor, of New York.

Postpone Action On Excess Profits Tax Law To 1951

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The senate by voice vote today approved an amendment to postpone action on an excess profits tax until next year. A roll call vote on the proposal was then ordered.

The black ox has been the symbol of bad luck since the 16th century.

State Unemployment Claims Down Again

HARRISBURG, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's unemployment claims dipped for the tenth consecutive week, the Bureau of Employment and Unemployment Compensation reported today.

Less than 79,000 claims were filed in the week ending August 24, an eight per cent drop from the previous week and 64 per cent below the corresponding week of 1949.

"The overall production spurt of recent weeks was the principal cause of employment and recall of workers in textile, apparel and hosiery industries was a significant factor," the bureau reported.

Slightly more than 72,500 benefit checks, totaling $1,447,000, were paid eligible jobless workers for the week ending August 24. The payments were three per cent less than the amount dispersed the week before.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS SATTELLS

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Designers ain't mad at nobody—but they're giving women a black look this fall!

It's because this is the year for the return of the "little black dress" that every lady had in her wardrobe till it was ousted from the style books last winter.

Now, say designers, we will return the black dress, suit and coat (which American women could never wholeheartedly part with), and gradually, we'll say goodbye to the reds, greens, yellows and blues that were experimentally substituted in 1949.

Longshoremen Continue Boycott Of Soviet Cargoes

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(INS)—East coast longshoremen continued today their boycott of Soviet bloc cargoes despite President Truman's warning that the government will act to halt the practice if the dockmen persist.

In New York, the dock wallopers refused to touch more than $800,000 worth of Russian furs aboard the Finnish ship Tornator. They also would not handle Polish hams and other goods on the Moore-McCormack freighter Mormacrio.

In Boston, longshoremen left 167,559 pounds of Russian crabmeat in the holds of the freighter, American Investor, although they unloaded other goods from the vessel.

President Truman, at his Thursday news conference, rebuked the longshoremen for their strike against handling Russian or Russian satellite cargoes. He said that U. S. foreign policy must be set by the government, not by longshoremen.

Zerbe, an employee of the C. W. Good Road Construction Co., of Lancaster, slipped and fell as he attempted to jump on the rear of the truck yesterday. The wheels passed over his chest and abdomen.

He is the second worker killed in turnpike construction accidents during the past three weeks. Aaron H. Riegel, of West Reading, was killed when crushed by a steam shovel August 15 on the section of road.

Gives Idea Of Ideal Woman

By JOHN E. LEE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Pierre Balmain, the famous Paris couturier, says the ideal woman should be blue-eyed, blonde and 30—"the most fascinating age for the female sex."

Balmain, who by profession should know whereof he speaks, has studied women from head to toe.

His deft touch with clothes has been responsible for much of the charm spread around the world by his clients.

It seems Balmain has spoken on the subject to some English friends with such vigor that people are wondering whether he has found not only an ideal woman but also a fiancée.

Ideal Woman

According to Balmain, the ideal woman should be French.

"She must have blue eyes," says Balmain. "She must be vivacious, charming, full of tact and at the same time very amusing."

"She should wear pull-overs in daytime and not the little black dress that so many French women wear from dawn to midnight. And for the evening she should wear very décolleté gowns."

Balmain was asked if this ideal woman really exists.

"Yes," said he.

French reports from London quote Balmain as saying that he has met this ideal woman and that he asked her to marry him just before he left Paris to visit the British capital.

But he wouldn't tell anyone her name. Maybe he's waiting until King Farouk gets back to Egypt.

KILLED IN MINE

HOUSTON, Pa., Sept. 1.—(INS)—John Whitley of Houston was killed today in a slate fall in the nearby Westland mine of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal company.

Negro Folk Singer Makes Charges Against Robeson

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Negro folk singer Josh White charged today that concert singer Paul Robeson is giving help to "people who despise America" by endorsing Communist causes.

White testified before the House Un-American Activities committee to tell how Communists exploited and used him for a sucker after he achieved fame.

The witness who once had a role in a play in which Robeson starred expressed admiration for his fellow Negro artists as an actor and singer.

White then said:

Feel Sad Over It

"If what I read in the papers is true, I feel sad over the help he's been giving to people who despise America. He has a right to his opinions but when he or anybody pretends to talk for a whole race, he's kidding himself."

"His statement that Negroes would not fight for their country against Soviet Russia or any other enemy is both wrong and an insult because I stand ready to fight Russia or any enemy of America."

The Negro ballad and spiritual artist declared he never knowingly belonged to or supported any organization designed to overthrow the government of the United States.

He added:

"But I did on many occasions appear at benefits and rallies which I was led to believe were for worth-while causes. I did not even suspect that some of them were Communist inspired. I did on some occasions sign petitions against lynching or poll tax or other evils."

SINNERS REMINDED

MURPHY, N. C.—People around Murphy have no trouble remembering the Ten Commandments. On the side of a mountain near the town, the Commandments are laid out in huge white stones. Each letter is taller than a man.

PUSAN, KOREA—Rice is ladled out to individual prisoner-members of a tent after the bucket full has been picked up at the kitchen. Each tent in this POW camp here has leaders who represents his tent at the chow line and other occasions. Tent leader picks up the bucket labeled for his tent, returns and portions out the rice. Note adequate amount dished up.

Wounded in the fighting in Korea, when he was struck on the arm and head by shrapnel, S-Sgt. Clifford E. Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin C. Black, of 40 N. Mill street, has returned to the fighting front, he advised his parents in a letter just received by them.

Sergeant Black, who is with the Medical company of the 34th Infantry, stated that he had lost most of his men during the early days of the fighting. He was wounded, he stated, on the day that General Dean was reported missing.

After convalescing in a hospital in Japan, he has returned to the fighting front against the North Korean forces.

He sent home most of his personal effects, as he stated they move about so much. It is easy to lose things. Included among these effects was a letter of commendation from Capt. George S. Richardson, his commanding officer, issued just prior to the outbreak of hostilities in Korea.

Railroad Situation Is Discussed By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright—1950—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)
GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 1.—In view of the railroad strikes in the United States and Canada, and the bullish tips that are being put out to get people to buy railroad stocks, I will this week discuss the railroads as an investment. At the close of World War II in 1946 the Index of Railroad Stocks averaged about 68.00. This declined to around 44.00 in June, 1949, and continued around these low figures until the Korean war broke out. Since then the Railroad Index has gone up to nearly 65.00. This means that these railroad stocks are now selling for almost as much as they did at their height during World War II.

Reasons For Being Bullish
1. Railroads have always prospered during wartime. This applies not only to the railroads serving such industrial centers as Pittsburgh, Detroit and Chicago but particularly the transcontinental lines. This should especially be true as long as the Korean difficulty lasts.
2. During the last depression many railroads cut their bonded debts and reduced other charges which should help the stocks. Even roads that were not reorganized were able to spend huge sums on improving their roadbeds, bridges, equipment, machine shops etc.
3. Most railroads have little to fear from excess-profits taxes because they have such a large basic investment. In other words, the railroads have no watered stock. In some cases the asset value of railroad stocks is 10 times the price at which they are selling on the market.
4. After the war the railroads will have no reconversion problems such as many industrial will have. This is because war traffic uses the same rails, locomotives and equipment that peacetime traffic uses. The railroads should also benefit from the increase in population.
5. The railroads have been able to abandon much unprofitable mileage and to streamline their organizations. This latter is especially being illustrated by what the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company is now doing.

Reasons For Being Bearish
1. The oldest of the strong labor unions are in the railroad field.

These unions in peacetime have usually "skimmed the cream" from the railroad earnings and have been a source of great trouble. If railroad wages could be reduced when earnings declined after a war, a fair readjustment could be made. As a matter of fact, the railroad wage increases given during war, when the earnings are abnormally good, cannot be withdrawn after the war is over, when earnings again decline.

2. Railroads have subject to disputed government rate concessions more or less a monopoly during wartime; but after a war is over, they are confronted with more airplanes, more buses and more trucks than ever before. Therefore, railroads normally are subject to tremendous competition during peacetime. This will certainly be true as a settlement is gradually made with Russia.

3. When the Interstate Commerce Commission was formed railroad rates were set by a government monopoly of transportation. There then were no private automobiles, no trucks, no buses and no airplanes. Such highways as then existed were very poor. Hence, the regulation of railroad rates and service was a necessity. Today, this regulation has turned into a nuisance to all concerned—railroads, shippers and the public. Yet, the various railroad commissions, both federal and state, continue in office. In order to hold their jobs, they feel obliged to continue to regulate the railroads in both an unreasonable and a costly manner. In addition, the federal government is now suing the railroads for "overcharging" on War II business.

4. These competitors of the railroads, such as the automobiles, trucks, buses, etc., have their "roadbeds" built by the federal government and by the states, for which cost the railroads are obliged to pay their proportion in taxes. The railroads on the other hand, must pay the cost of building and maintaining their own roadbeds and terminals. In the case of the airplanes, they have no roadbed to maintain as they use the air; while their expensive terminals are built by the federal or state governments, or by municipalities.

5. One-third of the present railroad mileage is unprofitable and should be abandoned. Yet, when the railroads want to take up a little useless track, the shippers, the unions and the politicians combine to prevent it. Another fact to be considered is that each generation of young people will be less willing to patronize the railroads than are we older people.

Railroads As A Speculation
A study of the above and other factors leads a conservative investor to avoid being tempted to buy railroad stocks at this time. Some railroads may increase their dividends temporarily, but very few which now pay no dividends will go on a dividend basis. They will need the additional money for buying more equipment, etc. It probably would have been smart to have bought railroad stocks immediately when our troops first landed in Korea; but to buy them today for investment will be risky.

Jeep In British Army Appearance

LONDON.—(INS) — The British version of the famous American jeep has now made its appearance with the British Army.
This new, small general purpose vehicle, powered by a four-cylinder engine developed on the lines of the famous Rolls-Royce, has an estimated top speed of 70 mph.
At a recent demonstration on the Army's training ground on Bagshot Heath the "no bumps" vehicle climbed a hill with a 33 1/3 per cent incline.
It will also drive smoothly over railroad ties and ford water five feet deep.
An Army spokesman claimed that this powerful, bull-nosed vehicle is suitable for use either in the jungle or the Arctic swamps.
All the electrical equipment is waterproofed and the jeep can be driven from assault craft on a beach landing.

Margiotti Is Sustained

HARRISBURG, Sept. 1.—(INS) —The State Supreme Court advised Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti that he has been sustained in his move to take over the "free work" probe of Pittsburgh's municipal government.

The court voted 4-2 to uphold the commonwealth with associate justices Ladner and Jones dissenting.

Margiotti's position was bitterly opposed during argument at Pittsburgh by Allegheny County District Attorney William S. Rahauser.

Newspaper Route Keeps Lad Busy

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (INS) — There's no time for juvenile delinquency in the life of 16-year-old Glenn Burrell.

He has a paper route for the Memphis Commercial Appeal, and during school, with his homework and athletic activities, he stays pretty busy.

Now, with things sort of slack, he has a job for the summer that doesn't interfere with his route.
If Glenn has ever missed a subscriber or put a newspaper where the subscriber couldn't find it during the 14 months he has had his route, it has never been reported.
He is learning reliability and responsibility early in life. The business training, he believes will always stand him in good stead.

At 16, Glenn is already making his own spending money and buying his own clothes. He even saves some for his future.

He will finish Humes high school next year and he was a letterman in football there last season.
He handles more than 200 subscribers, in about an hour. "If it's not raining, and the papers aren't too bulky."

TO LABOR, THIS DAY

Render deep the earth and blast the rock.
Smelt down the ore, refine it well.
From Pusan northward to Yongdok,
Your brothers fight in barren hell.
It's steel they need for ship and shell.
They have the valor; give them guns
To strike back where their comrades fell,
To chase the Gook who turns and runs.
Mold the metal for your sons;
They will aim it expertly.
The Kremlin watches you—the ones
Who by your toil may hold the key

State Moves To Launch Probe In Pittsburgh

HARRISBURG, Sept. 1.—(INS)—The commonwealth moved swiftly today to take over the investigation of Pittsburgh's rackets and municipal government.

State Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti is preparing to impanel a special grand jury next week to conduct the inquiry.

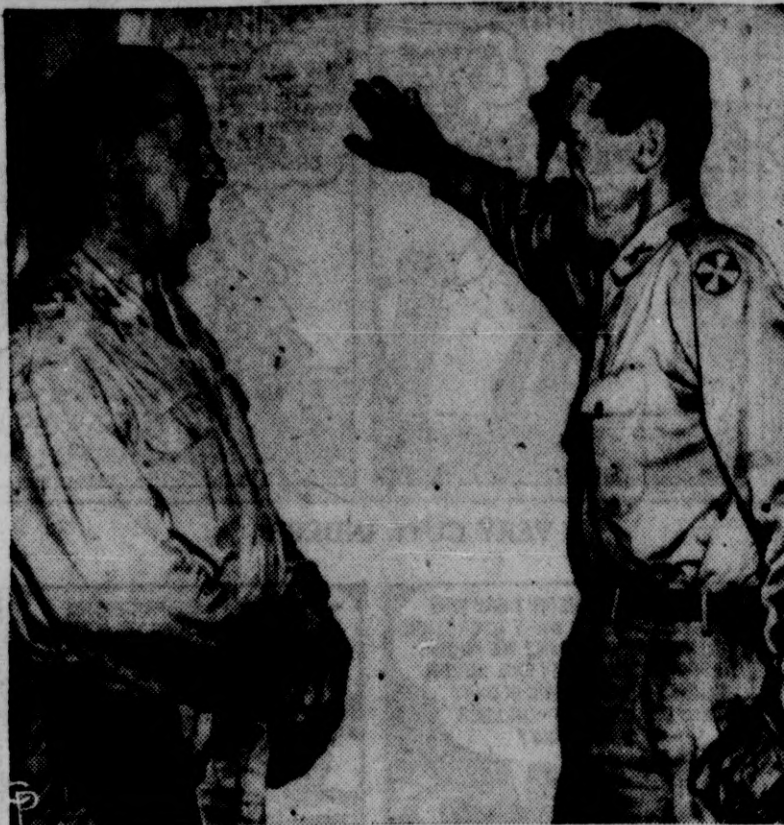

The allegations to be made by the commonwealth will be set forth in the petition for a special panel. Members will be carefully checked by investigators before being accepted for service.

Margiotti, armed with a State Supreme Court order validating his power to supersede District Attorney William S. Rahauser in the probe, will name three and possibly four special deputies attorneys general to aid W. Denning Stuart and State police press the investigation. Stuart was selected by Margiotti earlier to get the inquiry underway.

LINDEN, N. J., Sept. 1.—(INS)—Television apparently has spoiled the old grandma gag for baseball fans.

A strike at the Linden plant of the General Aniline & Film Corp., followed the suspension of a clerk. The company said today it suspended the man because—

He reported himself sick, then was seen on a telecast of a ball game.

The curvature of the earth is about eight inches to the mile.

LONELIER AND LONELIER

BOSTON.—A lonesome delicatessen store proprietor just got lonelier. Arnold M. Sawyer said he ran up a $36 telephone bill calling friends to break the monotony at the store. But the licensing board decided the bill was run up by a bookie doing business at the store and closed the place for a week.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By FR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

It's Hard To Be Normal

Eight year old Timmy Rasmussen had had rheumatic fever. Everyone in the family was concerned about him. Ellen Steers had a variety of food allergies and was the center of attention at meals.

Before long both the Rasmussens and the Steers faced another problem. Timmy's brother and Ellen's sister began to show resentment of the afflicted youngsters. Explanations of the necessity to give Timmy and Ellen special care did not have much effect.

Such situations aren't easy ones with which to deal. It's hard for young children to be "reasonable" when they feel they're being neglected. And it's the most natural thing in the world for parents to concentrate on the child who needs special care. There's no easy solution to the problem.

Realizing how normal children may feel when brothers or sisters require special attention gives us a cue.

Parents should make a point of spending definite time with them, and of showing a particular interest in their activities. They should give them concrete responsibility for some aspects of the care of the handicapped youngster. This will help the child to feel wanted, not neglected.

Most important is the recognition that in these situations it's hard on the normal child as well as the afflicted one.

Truman Asked For Facts On Commitments

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(INS)—President Truman was asked today to produce a "balance sheet" showing United States foreign commitments and the strength on hand to meet them.

Sen. Martin (R) Pa., former 28th Division commanding general, said it should include a declaration of "how far we are going in Korea" and whether we plan to defend Formosa.

Martin joined Sen. Pepper (D) Fla., in urging prompt creation of an armed force to match that of Russia, which the Democrat set at 2,900,000 men. Earlier Sen. Lodge (R) Mass., told the Senate Congress should authorize an armed force of 3,000,000 men at once.

The Martin-Pepper statements coincided with President Truman's announcement that when the Korean war is finished the U.S. Seventh Fleet will be withdrawn from Formosa.

Statement Denounced
Several leading GOP senators who have been most vocal on defending Formosa saw little meaning in the President's statement at this time. But Republican Floor Leader Wherry (R) Neb., and GOP Campaign Chairman Brewster (R) Maine, denounced it hotly.

Brewster said the President's statement meant the administration was "getting ready to sacrifice Formosa and Chiang Kai-Shek." Wherry again demanded the resignation of Secretary of State Acheson, whose policies he blames for the loss of China and the Korean invasion.

Martin said the needed "balance sheet" should show what our requirements are in the Philippines, Alaska and elsewhere. He suggested a cooperative defense of the Panama Canal by Latin-American allies, and cooperative defense in the Far East by whatever allies exist there.

Valuable Collection Of Stamps Stolen

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Police searched today for "stamp wise" burglars who stole rare stamps valued at $35,000 from a large safe in the home of Maj. Aaron E. Carpenter, Philadelphia oil firm executive.

Police said that only the best of Carpenter's collection was taken. The burglars ignored three or four albums of lesser value. A quantity of costume jewelry and $400 in cash were also taken.

Carpenter, widely-known game fisherman, is chairman of the board of E. F. Houghton Co., manufacturers of lubricants. The robbery was discovered when he returned from a seashore vacation yesterday.

Report Dilworth To Receive Promotion

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Report published in Philadelphia today said that Richardson Dilworth, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, has been selected by a promotion board for promotion to lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps reserve.

Dilworth, a World War I and II veteran, saw active duty on Guadalcanal.

Sharply Worded Customs Debate

PARIS.—(INS)—A bitter exchange of sarcastic pleasantries between an incongruous but sharp-tongued American tourist and the equally gifted president of the British Tourist Association recently came to light in Paris.

Returning from a trip to England, the American said he understood why the Germans failed to invade the British Isles.

"It was because they would have been kept waiting too long by the British customs," he announced. Touched to the quick, the British tourist official to whom these recriminations were addressed, retorted:

"If he had lived in our day, Christopher Columbus never would have been able to discover America because he had no birth certificate and could not have been vaccinated."

BOOK BREVITY

LOS ANGELES (INS)—Speed of modern living has created a definite trend toward brevity in contemporary literature. Dr. William H. Davenport, professor of English at the University of Southern California, has observed. "With most people unable to sit still and read for any length of time, and with the writer's audience looking the other way at television, even the short story is getting shorter and shorter," he said.

Three Communist Leaders Are Held In Allegheny Co.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 1.—(INS)—Three western Pennsylvania communist leaders still languished in Allegheny county jail today on charges of having violated the 1939 state sedition act.

Held in lieu of $5,000 bond were Steve Nelson, head of the Communist party in western Pennsylvania, and two of his top aides, Andrew Onda, a steel industry organizer for the party, and James H. Dolsen, Daily Worker correspondent in Pittsburgh.

The trio was arrested yesterday on warrants sworn out by Judge Michael A. Musmanno, who said he was acting as a private citizen.

Raid Headquarters
After the arrests, Judge Musmanno led a raid on communist headquarters accompanied by former FBI undercover agent Matt Cvetic and two city detectives.

Judge Musmanno, a Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, and Cvetic seized arms-full of communist literature which Musmanno said will be used as evidence.

Musmanno declared: "I witnessed sedition against our country and our state... across the street from the courthouse the communist trio has been openly and flagrantly violating the sedition act of 1939."

"As a citizen, I deem it my bounden duty to initiate criminal prosecution against these three men... who continue to engage in plans to overthrow our government by force."

FANCY CATTLE

MUNCIE, Ind.—Cattle judges at the Muncie fair think "Mac" or "Annie" would be good names for livestock. They say they're tired of recording long titles. One animal was entered this year under the name "Cold Stream Douglas Net Cash" and another was called "Stone Fence Paula's Lassie."

Yanks Stretch Lead To Two Games Over Drooping Tigers

Indians Again Defeated By New Yorkers, Hodges Sets New Home Run Mark

By JOHN BARRINGTON
(U. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—It takes a heap of hitting to distract attention from the torrid American league pennant race, but Gil Hodges is just the fellow who can do it.

The muscular Brooklyn first baseman did it last night by socking four home runs and a single as the Dodgers massacred the Boston Braves, 19 to 3.

New NL Record
Hodges set a modern National league record and tied the major league standard with his four blasts into the left field stands in the second, third, sixth and eighth innings.

His 17 total bases created a major league mark, although two old-timers, Bobby Lowe and Ed Delahanty, also had four homers and a single back in the gay '90s.

Lou Gehrig is the only other post-1900 player to hit four homers in a nine inning game. Pat Seery, the last player to hit four round-trippers, did so in an 11-inning game for the Chicago White Sox on July 18, 1948.

Chuck Klein, the only other modern National leaguer to perform the feat, did so in ten innings for the 1936 Phillies.

Brooklyn cut idle Philadelphia's National league lead to two games and bolstered its own margin over the third-place Braves to two and one-half lengths.

Giants Top Pirates
In the only other National league game, the New York Giants pulled into a fourth-place tie with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Giants topped Pittsburgh, 2 to 1, with their bargain basement right-hander, Jim Hearn, allowing only four hits.

The Yanks stretched their lead over the Tigers to two games and sent Cleveland reeling five games off the pace by trouncing the Tribe, 7 to 5, for a clean sweep of the four-game series.

The bedraggled Tigers lost their third in four starts to Washington when Cleveland castoff Gene Bearden bested Art Houtteman, 2 to 1, in a sterling mound duel.

Not only did the loss drop the Tigers two games behind the Yankees, but it also put them within reaching distance of the third-place Red Sox.

The amazing Bostonians made it 16 wins in 17 games on their phenomenal home stand as they nipped the Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3.

Another sort of race drew only 1,161 paying customers in Philadelphia where the St. Louis Browns maintained their one-game advantage over the last-place Athletics. At least they were evenly matched. The Browns won a twilight game, 4 to 3, the A's the nightcap, 3 to 2.

Harness Races At Stoneboro Fair

Three events, a trot, pace and overnight event were to be staged today at the Stoneboro Fair. There will be two trots and a pace Saturday and four events, two paces and a trot, and also an overnight event, Labor Day.

The purses aggregate, $6,150. A starting gate will be used in the events.

WILL PLAY SUNDAY
The newly organized Italian All-Stars will play the New Castle Indians at the P.L.E. field Sunday at 3 o'clock it was announced today by Manager Carm DeLeone.

All-Stars Ahead When Rain Stops Game At Dayton

(Special To The News)
DAYTON, O., Sept. 1.—Rain stopped the New Castle All-Stars vs. Louisville, National Amateur Baseball Federation Junior tournament game at the end of the third inning here yesterday. New Castle was leading one to nothing in the first round of the tournament when a heavy downpour came.

It was one of 19 out of 22 games which were washed out.

A steady drizzle fell during the first three frames then turned into a deluge and the game was stopped.

Tournament officials said that the All-Stars would play Louisville Friday morning and either Fort Wayne or Atlanta, Ga., in the afternoon, providing there is no rain.

Pulaski-Vets Are Rained Out

Pulaski and No. 5 Vets tried again last night to play the first game of their best-of-seven series for the North County league championship, but were rained out in the third inning at Pulaski.

Titan Gridders Start Drills, Seven Lettermen Are On Hand

Forty-two candidates for berths on Westminster college's football team have begun pre-season drills in preparation for the opening grid contest at Slippery Rock Sept. 23.

Coach Mel Hetzler will hold drills twice daily and evening board talks until Sept. 12 when college registration begins for the fall season.

Faced with the loss of 18 men from last year's squad, including 11 lettermen, Hetzler will put a host of new prospects through intense training in order to fill in the gaps left by graduation.

The 1950 Titan eleven will be based around seven returning lettermen, 18 freshman prospects and 17 former squad members.

Returning lettermen include backs Larry Campbell, Dick Sylvester and Larry Verone; ends Charles Nicholas, Victor Bianchi and tackles Ralph Stevens and Jack Ramsey.

Three new assistants have been added to the grid staff. They are Dick Wharton, the Titans' top ground gainer last season, who has been named backfield coach; Jack Hudson, a four-year letterman and 1947 graduate of Westminster, who will serve as line coach, and Bob Washabaugh, a member of the Titan eleven in 1939 and 1940, who will coach the end position. "Bud" Ridd will continue in the position of assistant coach.

Titan Schedule
The Titans play their first home game Sept. 30 when they meet the Juniata Indians on the local field.

The remaining schedule includes Thiel, away, Oct. 7; Bethany, away, Oct. 14; Grove City, here, Oct. 21; Geneva, here, Oct. 28; Waynesburg, here, Nov. 4; Allegheny, away, Nov. 11, and Carnegie Tech, here, Nov. 18.

Foytack Bests Wagner In Mound Duel 4 to 3

(Special To The News)
BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 1.—The Butler Tigers, after a three-day layoff, came back to the baseball wars here last night and gained sweet revenge on Frank Wagner, 4-3.

Al Mouton muffed Tom Dorsey's roller and Bob Adecock, roosting on third, raced home with the winning run.

Wagner and Paul Foytack, the Butler ace who won his 18th game of the season, tangled in a bitter duel that was a thriller down to the wire.

Although the Senators' star yielded only six hits, four of them went for extra bases. Frazier and Stuckert homered for Butler while Tommy Falk touched Wagner for a brace of doubles.

Senators Grab Lead
The Senators scored once in the second. Famiglietti singled to left, moved to the keystone when Ackerman walked, flied third and tallied on Eikenberg's single.

Butler tied it in the fourth and New Castle forged ahead again in the fifth. The Tigers tied it and went ahead on the homers by Frazier and Stuckert in the sixth and seventh innings.

The Senators knotted it at 3-all in the eighth. Mouton struck out but got a life when Dorsey dropped the ball. He moved to second and third on walks to Famiglietti and Rossman, who replaced Ackerman. Mouton scored on Dondero's single.

Twin Bill Tonight
Ackerman was tossed out of the game by Umpire Omogrosso for throwing his bat to the ground after being called out on strikes in the sixth.

Tonight the two teams engage in a twin bill here. The first game starting at 7 o'clock. Churchill goes to the mound for the Senators, and will be opposed by Tessler. Becka will pitch the second game for New Castle against Pritchard (weather allowing).

Oil City Here Sunday

Armatorio was on the mound for Wampum. Clerici went for New Galilee. Joe Powell singled, stole second and scored on a wild pitch in the fourth inning for Wampum's only score.

D. Guzzetti singled home New Galilee's only run in the top of the fifth.

High Gridders Winding Up Final Week Of Camp Work

Daily scrimmages continue at New Castle high school's football training camp as the camp training period draws to its close.

Head coach P. H. Bridenbaugh has put the squad through long scrimmage sessions every day this week in an effort to get his quad ready for the opener with Carrick a week from tonight.

The squad will break camp Saturday morning, climaxing its two-week training grind with a scrimmage at Taggart Stadium.

Coaches have been working hard trying to find a suitable substitute for the running guard position, made vacant by Joe Marinelli's knee injury. Joe is not expected to be ready for the Carrick game.

Sam Perrino seems to have the inside track for the position, but is getting a lot of competition from Mendall Kahner, Bob Shelloog and Chuck Mangino.

Battle For Center
Sam Medure and Fred McClain are still fighting it out for the center slot. Steve Belancin has been switched from tackle and operated at center with the third team in Thursday's drills.

Paul Buckner and Sam Cook were both out of action Thursday due to injuries. Buckner has a sore shoulder and Cook will be out a few days with a groin injury. Paul Bober filled in for Buckner at guard and Hugo Florante took over Cook's end position.

Ralph Johnson and Wilbur Foht are fighting it out for the first team left halfback job, with Johnson getting more work Thursday.

John Rousseau and Ray Latsko looked good in Thursday afternoon's scrimmages and seem to have the fullback and right half positions all sewed up.

John Sansone has been passing well and doesn't have much competition for the quarterback position.

Tackles Set
Bucky Tate and Danny DeFalco are permanent fixtures at tackle. The rest of the line is still somewhat unsettled however. Bill Roak seems to have the left end spot under control while Sam Cook may have a little trouble putting Florante back on the second team when he returns to action.

The first team worked on offense Thursday afternoon and defense Wednesday afternoon.

Joe Frengli, who has been playing fullback on the second team, was out of action Thursday with a sore knee. Bob Calhoun took his place on the second team.

Other players seeing a lot of action in scrimmages were Guy Amodei, Bob Cupido and Torrance Rankin in the backfield, and Lee Richael, Sam Hanna, Anthony Marino, James Caputo and Rodney Rowe on the line.

HURRICANE BREEZES
Tom "Bear" Mangino and Amen Hassen, members of last year's championship team were out getting in some exercise Thursday.

Both will report for practice with Penn State's freshman squad. Dick Lewis, extra-point specialist on last year's team was a spectator at Thursday's session.

Dick has enrolled at Monmouth college where he will report for football. A number of candidates are trying out in the extra-point department. John Sansone seems to be the team's number one punter to date.

Thirty-Two Boys Report For Bessemer Grid Squad

Head coach Bill Ciccone led a thirty-two man Bessemer squad back to grid wars last week by holding daily practice sessions. Contact work and light scrimmages were dominant in the first week's drills, with the heavier work planned for the morning and afternoon sessions scheduled for the following week.

Ciccone sent his tentative eleven through familiar basic single wing plays and even the light scrimmages produced standouts in backs Schaville and Pezzuolo.

Eight Lettermen
Bessemer returns eight lettermen including Schaville and Pezzuolo. Joe Comnesso completes the list of returning backs and Jim Gagliano, Tom Shulugo, Phil DeArment, Ed Novad, and Anthony Galetta, return for line play.

Bessemer opens its season with powerful Rochester, September 8.

BESSEMER BRIEFS
Henry Pezzuolo, former Bessemer star, is in training with Youngstown at Camp Fitch, Erie. . . . Jim Veriotte will try out for the Georgia Freshmen team.

If Manager Sawyer's crew doesn't bring home a pennant this year, there will be plenty more sour expressions. Phila fans are convinced that "this is it, at last."

Browns-Bears Clash Tonight

Cleveland Stadium
Scene Of Battle

CLEVELAND, Sept. 1.—(INS)—It took four years to arrange it, but the Cleveland Browns tonight finally get the chance they have been waiting for—a chance to knock off one of their proudest National League rivals, the Chicago Bears.

And exhibition or no exhibition, Coach Paul Brown of the colorful Cleveland eleven, and George Halas, owner-coach of the fabulous Bears, will pull no punches in their efforts to prove the other team inferior.

Ever since the Browns won their first championship in the now-defunct All-America Conference, the Bears, along with other National League stalwarts, have scoffed at the Clevelanders as a "pass-and-trap" team with little or no opposition in the A.C.

Galaxy of Stars
Quarterback Otto Graham, Fullback Marion Motley and Halfbacks Dub Jones and Rex Bumgardner probably will play most of the game on offense, for Cleveland, as will Mac Speedie and Dante Lavelli, two of the best ends on any football team.

Sparking the Bears' attack will be such famous names as Johnny Lujack, former Notre Dame All-American quarterback, Sid Luckman, veteran quarterback who is starting his 10th season with the Bears, and Center Clyde Turner.

Tempy's Enters Warren Tourney

Tempy's softball team, made up of players from the City Softball League, has entered the Warren, O., tournament and will play its first game tonight at 7:45 against Carpo-Russ of Farrell.

Lou Santangelo and Sammy Bullano manage the team, which is made up of Sam DiLillo, John Pace, Pete Demos, Phil Richards, Norm Conti, Sam Mooney, Sam Calazza, Tony Tuscano, Dusty Rhodes, Pat Cioppa, E. Franks Buff Litrenta and Andy Bungsai.

Players will meet at the corner of Mill and Division streets at 6 o'clock.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

STATE GAME COMMISSION at Harrisburg, has announced the 1950 regulations for migratory waterfowl hunting in this state will be the same as last year, except that the 40-day Duck, Goose and Coot season will open October 13 through November 21. . . . Izzy Solomon, formerly of New Castle, now of Lorain, O., won a horseshoe tourney there, following which he pitched against Ohio State Champion Onner Maxwell, losing 50-33. He had 19 ringers to Maxwell's 28. Izzy was Army-Navy-European Doubles champion in 1948. Izzy writes Here & There that Arnold Michaels, formerly of Oak street, this city, holds the records for two golf courses near Lorain and Elyria. Izzy adds that Michaels hits a beautiful long wood and is deadly with irons and putter, and reminds Solomon of the days when Jimmy Pagley was tops. . . . Who do you like in the American league race, which at present, is a big question, and appears to be a race to the wire. The eastern flop of the Tigers has made the September stretch a four-team battle, with the probable decision coming in the last series of the season between the Yanks and Sox, and the Indians vs. Tigers in Detroit. . . . Johnny Kravec, 160, Youngstown, was judged the "outstanding fighter" of the year at the boxing show conducted by the Shenango Valley Veterans Boxers Association, at Farrell. Ray Arcel, New York boxers' trainer, presented Kravec with the trophy. Twelve hundred fans witnessed the nine amateur bout carnival.

The Dingell bill has become law and means the federal government will pay 75 percent of the cost of fish restoration projects and the Pennsylvania Fish Commission will pay 25 percent. The federal money will come from the 10 percent tax on fishing tackle, which is collected from tackle manufacturers, but in the final analysis, from the pockets of fishermen. The money shall be used only for restoration. . . . King snakes are constrictors without fangs. . . . Eggs of the long-nosed Gar are poisonous. . . . Arctic or white fox turns a malleable gray color in summer, and is sometimes referred to as the blue fox, according to Sports Afield. . . . Writing from Stockholm, Sweden to Here & There, Dr. W. A. Womer, city's health superintendent, pens: "Pretty swanky. Mighty fine people over here. Lots of newspapers, but few in English." . . . Three trot events were staged today, three will be held Saturday and four on Labor Day at Stoneboro fair grounds track. Many local harness horse patrons will see the events. . . . Keystone A.C. intends to have a bowling team this season. Herman Steinbrink was elected president. Years ago the club which has reorganized, promoted a basketball team.

Golf Stars Start Albany Tournament

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(INS)—Many of the nation's top golfers tee off today at Shaker Ridge Country Club in Albany in the 72-hole Empire State Golf Tournament.

Albany's first big money tournament attracted such topflight champions as Henry Ransom, winner of the Professional Championship at Tam O' Shanter, and Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, who took the Canadian open last week. Others in the big field include Lloyd Mangrum, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Gene Sarzan, and Lawson Little.

Sam Snead, top money winner, who had planned to participate, decided to take a rest after finishing eleven strokes behind Ferrier in the Canadian Open.

STRANGE 'FISH' PAY

SAN DIEGO—If they're not having much luck with their nets, fishermen can now make money by "catching" naval gun targets. The targets, 12-foot floating pyramids anchored offshore for bombing squadrons, occasionally slip their mooring and drift down the coast. The naval air station announced it will pay $25 cash for every target returned intact.

LIVELY NEWS

PHILADELPHIA—This could be sad news only to Philadelphia's undertakers: The 1949 death rate for the Quaker City was the lowest ever recorded.
